11 September 2026 | Decisions | 3 minutes

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Those who wait too long for certainty leave the decision to hesitation.

Julius Caesar

What does it mean?

Caesar writes that he left Rome quickly after learning that the Helvetii planned to cross the Roman province. In Geneva, he ordered the bridge over the Rhône to be destroyed and gathered troops. Caesar wrote the account himself, so it presents only his perspective.

You do not need every answer before making a decision about building wealth. Once the essential facts are clear, further delay can cost a good opportunity or increase a risk. A firm deadline strengthens self-control and prevents hesitation from deciding for you.

Put it into practice

- 01 Name the money decision that you keep postponing.
- 02 Write down the most important fact that is still missing.
- 03 Set a firm date for your decision.

YOUR TASK FOR TODAY

Choose one open money decision. In five minutes, write down the missing fact and a decision date.

YOUR QUESTION
