

Stay Alert and Decide with Courage

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Stay alert and be brave.

Malco Lara Del Pozo | Selection

What does it mean?

Staying alert means noticing changes and warning signs. Being brave does not mean taking every risk. It means calmly checking the facts and then making a necessary decision.

Building wealth requires both: attention to costs, risks and opportunities, and the courage to carry out a sound decision. If we only watch, we miss opportunities. If we only act, we overlook important signals.

Put it into practice

- 01 Choose one money decision that you are putting off.
- 02 Write down one important number you still need to check, such as the cost or possible loss.
- 03 Set one small step that you will complete today.

YOUR TASK FOR TODAY

In five minutes, complete three short lines: 'I need to watch: ...', 'The risk is: ...' and 'Today I will: ...'.

YOUR QUESTION

Where do you need attention and courage today?
